

Memphis Jewish Home and Rehabilitation Center

Memphis Jewish Home Celebrates Another Successful Golf Tournament

Cordova, TN, September 23, 2008 - The Annual Memphis Jewish Home and Rehabilitation Center Golf Tournament was again a huge success! Twenty-nine teams came out to Ridgeway Country Club on Monday, September 22nd for a day of golf, fun, and prizes to raise money for the residents of the Home. This event is held each year to raise funds for expenditures that directly affect the residents and their quality of life. The weather could not have been more beautiful for the 16th annual tournament. The shot gun start was at 12:30p.m., after a delicious lunch buffet was enjoyed by both players and sponsors.

Along the course, there were several special contests including the Hole-in-One contest, sponsored by Robinson Toyota. There was no lucky winner this year of the 2009 Toyota Camry. Brad Schoenberger did go home with a beautiful Cutter and Buck leather duffle bag for being closest to the pin on the 17th hole. Cash prizes were awarded to contest winners Scott Vogel for putting and Rick Wells for chipping from the sand trap on the practice greens near the clubhouse.

In addition, first, second, and third place teams of each of the four flights went home with special prizes. A large number of door prizes, all donated by local area businesses, were given out at the awards ceremony after the tournament as well.

"Many thanks go to the over 200 sponsors and donors this year who gave so generously as well as the 30 plus volunteers who worked before and during the tournament," said Mark Halperin, chairman of the event. "A special thank you goes to our Event Sponsor, the Herbert and Mary Shainberg Foundation."

Plans have already begun for next year. The 17th Annual Memphis Jewish Home and Rehabilitation Center Golf Tournament is set for Monday, September 14, 2008.

###