Maurice Buring Honored by Residents of Memphis Jewish Home and Rehabilitation Center

Cordova, TN, March 28, 2008 - A special early Shabbat dinner was held in Maurice Buring's honor Friday, March 14th to celebrate his 25 years of volunteer service to Memphis Jewish Home and Rehabilitation Center. For the last 25 years, Maurice has led the Saturday morning services for residents along with the help of a dedicated group of minyanaires.

Before dinner, Mary Anna Kaplan, administrator for the Home, spoke about Maurice's dedication to the Home and its residents. Maurice was presented with a resolution from Jeff Bronze, president of the board of directors, recognizing his 25 years of service. Rose Schultz, a resident of the Home, presented Maurice with a framed Nina Bonos print. Hattie Bass, presented a memory book of poems, notes, and writings from residents to Maurice.

"Maurice is here every week to make sure our Jewish residents have a special Shabbat celebration," said Mary Anna Kaplan. "We can't begin to express what this means to our residents and their families. Maurice is a very special person."
